

They _____ picked an _____ off the tree.

The _____ of milk was open.

There was some _____ on the _____.

The _____ was on the floor.

Can you _____ with _____ two balls?

The _____ were left in the _____ of the room.

bottle, juggle, middle, apple, both, money, table, puzzle, only, clothes

add the suffix - ing

take off e	double consonant	do nothing
---------------	---------------------	------------

bake
hop

hike
talk

jump
run

laugh
step

add the suffix - ing

	take off e	double consonant	do nothing skip move
ride
tap
fall
tell write make

Adding the suffix er and est to an adjective.

How does the suffix er change an adjective?

nicer

braver

larger

How does the suffix est change an adjective?

nicest

bravest

largest

Look at these adjectives:

nice

late

ripe

rude

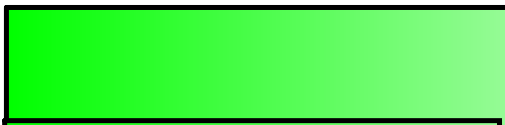

brave

What happens when you add the er to these words?

Knock off the e add er/ just add an r.

nice

late

ripe

rude

brave

*What happens when you add the est to these adjectives?
Knock off the e add est.*

In your journals add the suffixes er and est to these words:

adjective	er	est
nice	nicer	nicest
late
ripe
rude
brave

Common exception words:

money

half

many

child

children

